

RHODES BARBECUE SEPTEMBER 13, 2015

On July 26 we checked with Doug Rhodes, and the annual Rhodes Barbecue is on Sunday, September 13. Bob Rhodes himself verified this on September 3rd. If you have never been to it, they put out a great spread and everyone has a fine time. If you are flying there, use the coordinates shown on the map since the Rhodes airstrip is not on the charts.

On the way from Augusta on Washington Road (Georgia Highway #47) to Bob Rhodes' farm, motorists will be directed to use a 7-mile detour along Cobbham Road and Ray Owens Road around the 4.5-mile stretch of closed Washington Road. The bridge over Keg Creek is being replaced 6.9 miles north of Appling, Georgia. Detour signs have been posted at Pollard's Corner on Washington Road (the intersection of Highway 47 and U.S. 221). There is also more road construction up to Little River bridge. Watch for Georgia DOT detour signs, and if you are unfamiliar with the area, be prepared to get lost since the signage is not all that understandable according to a number of commenters on the Web!
